IMPORTANT GUIDELINES

01] All details should be filled-in only in English, otherwise specified.

02] It is a Self-Nomination Form; Nominee is solely responsible for the details and other facts in this self-nomination.

03] Centenary Committee has the sole right to cross-verify these facts, if necessary.

04] Nominees are required to provide all the possible & applicable information.

05] No column or details should be kept blank; if it is "Not Applicable", kindly mention it so.

06] Opinion/View on a 'Specified Topic' must be lucid and should indicate your taste/depth. This item together with "Proust Questionnaire" is mandatory. Without these TWO, self-nominations would be kept aside.

07] Incomplete nominations may be rejected without seeking further information.

08] Nomination forms [both in doc. and pdf] would be sent by email and nominees may fill-in the word document with all details [duly typed] plus the passport-size photo affixed and send both the versions of Filled-in Self-Nominations to us by email: nasubbureddiar100@gmail.com

09] Format should NOT be changed/deviated from: Total Pages are 16 [always].

10] Rewards, awards, etc may be included in the appropriate 'achievements' items.

11] There are THREE stages of Evaluation:

[a] Preliminary scrutiny would done by Centenary Committee and only 10 nominations or 20% of nominations received , whichever is high, would be taken up in the second stage.

[b] In the second stage, these nominations may be evaluated by the Committee, specially constituted, and short-list top FIVE nominations.

[c] These short-listed nominees should appear, in person, before a Panel of Judges at Chennai on a date decided by us [well in advance]; nominal travel expenses would be met.

12] Successful Nominee would invited to receive the Award & Honour [Rs.5000.00 + Memento + Certificate] at the Valedictory event of the Centenary Celebrations [sometime in July/August 2016] at Chennai.

13] Filled-in Self-Nominations should reach us on or before 31 December 2015.

TEACHER'S SELF-EVALUATION

Every teacher consciously or unconsciously evaluates his/her daily and yearly performance.

Six major "AREAS OF TEACHER RESPONSIBILITY" have been identified for this Unique Self-Evaluation Process.

Our idea is to provide a simple, concise instrument which you may use to assess your overall performance as a teacher.

Kindly go enthusiastically for a serious and sincere Self-Evaluation and present the same to enable us to process your Self-Nomination.

Of course, this is purely confidential and will not be revealed to anybody either covertly or overtly.

Evaluate yourself on each statement using the following scale as a guide.

5 - Excellent

4 - Very good; very effective in this part of my work.

3 - Good; an acceptable level of performance.

2 - Fair; needs my attention; must update my performance in this part of my work.

1 - Poor; dissatisfied with this part of my work; must take immediate steps to improve in this regard.

No. 1 - TEACHING SKILLS

1(a) I create and maintain an atmosphere for learning. []

1(b) I provide a motivational environment for my students. []

1(c) I maintain a judicious balance between teacher-centered and pupil-centered activities. []

1(d) I use effective questioning techniques. []

1(e) I use techniques that make clear the purpose and content of each lesson. []

No. 2 - TEACHING STRATEGIES

2(a) I use varied and effective methods of presentation appropriate to the lesson content. []

2(b) I provide written and oral assignments requiring analytical and critical thinking. []

2(c) I evaluate effectively, thereby improving both teaching and learning. []

2(d) I utilize community resources to enrich the classroom program. []

10

No. 3 - CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

3(a) My classroom procedures are designed to develop a positive learning environment. []

3(b) I have an effective method for dealing with clerical matters. []

No.4 - SUBJECT COMPETENCE AND PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

4(a) I strive to upgrade my professional competence. []

4(b) I make use of available means of evaluation to improve my teaching. []

4(c) I take an active part in continuing curriculum development. []

SUMMARY OF EVALUATION

By going through this process you have been reviewing the many facets that go together to produce good teaching. You have also evaluated your own performance in each of the areas of responsibility. This is but the first step; the procedures below are designed to help you make a valuable summary which will help you to focus on areas of strength and areas needing improvement.

- (1) Enter your self-ratings in the appropriate spaces in the chart below.
- (2) Add up the total and average scores for each area as indicated.
- (3) Compare your average score for the six areas, and also note the individual scores which are particularly high or low.
